

CONSTITUTION OF GREATER READING ENVIRONMENTAL NETWORK

ADOPTED ON 28TH OCTOBER, 2009

1. Name

The name of the Group shall be: Greater Reading Environmental Network (hereafter referred to as 'the Network').

2. Aims and Objectives

2.1 Aims

The aims of the Network shall be to promote a sustainable society for the benefit of the public and the wider environment through:

- (a) the preservation, conservation and protection of the environment and prudent use of resources;
- (b) the improvement of the conditions of life, especially in socially and economically disadvantaged communities;
- (c) sustainable means of achieving economic sufficiency and well-being.

2.2 Objectives

The Network shall pursue these aims through the following objectives:

- a) To represent and act as a collective 'voice' for organisations, groups and individuals with an interest in sustainability and the environment from Greater Reading, particularly through dialogue with local government and partnerships;
- b) To promote networking, sharing of information and resources and co-operation between such groups in Greater Reading;
- c) To lobby and campaign to influence decisions and shape local policies and plans which will affect sustainability in Greater Reading and the wider environment;
- d) To promote the work of member groups and organisations and act as a 'shop window' for their work, particularly for smaller groups;
- e) To act as a link to the wider voluntary sector and help member organisations access the support and resources which are available through the sector;
- f) To support and undertake work that promotes or builds the sustainability of the communities of Greater Reading and its environment.

3. Values

The values of the Network, set out in the Appendix, shall guide the Network and its members in all its work, relationships and communications.
